GROWTH

Invisible, I feel like I'm forgotten
Do you even notice me ?
Work myself up
Let the nerves take over How I feel isn't what you see

I need control need to learn to let it be Gotta remember nothing lasts forever
So I'm just happy being me

And when I'm older, it's never over It don't stop affecting me the world keeps testing me I'm staying on track with every knock back
On a bad day, I just gotta stay

VSCO GIRL

a girl who loves the beach and wears shell necklaces and anklets, crocs, birkenstocks, or vans only. her hydroflask has matching stickers from redbubble or similar instead of random ones of someone who actually travels. her wrists are filled with pure vida, 4ocean, and "friendship bracelets" even though her collection is full of posts ab being alone. the only 2 outfit options are oversized tshirt with short Nike shorts or a tube top with short Jean shorts bc ur not a vsco girl if u wear pants. she obviously drives a jeep and has sleepovers in the back or on a trampoline. Most of their language consists of "and I oop", "tea", "skskskksk", etc.
